

AM I WALKING IN THE TRUTH REGARDING THIS SUBJECT?

For instance, you may be saying, “Lord, I’m believing you for peace in my home.” Do you really love your wife as Christ loved the Church? (Ephesians 5:25)
Wives, are you subject to your husband? (Ephesians 5: 22)

“Lord I want you to intervene in my finances.”
Are you a tither? (Malachai 3:10)
The scriptures cannot be broken, He will not intervene contrary to His word.

“O Lord strengthen me!” (Psalm 84: 7)
“They go from strength to strength everyone in Zion appearing before God.”
Are you in church? You may answer , “No, I don’t have the time!”
Then you simply don’t have time for strength, because it is in Mount Zion that you gain strength.

“Lord I want you to make my children great.”
Are you setting a great example? Like father, like son.
God said to Abraham, “I know him that will command his children after him, they will follow in his steps.” (Genesis 18:19)

“Lord, why does it feel like everything in my life is a challenge?”
Honor your father and your mother, as the Lord your God commanded you, that your days may be long, and that it may go well with you in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. (Deuteronomy 5:16)

Everything you are asking God for requires your alignment and leaves you with a responsibility.

Are you walking in the truth concerning what you are asking God to do? If you aren’t your dream will never become a reality. Faith is not an enchantment. Faith draws its power from the finished work of Christ when you are walking in the truth.

Covenant alignment is essential to making your dreams a reality. Your part has to be played before God’s integrity is committed to performing His part.
