

REFLECTIONS OF ROYALTY

CREATIVE EXERCISE - REMEMBER WHO YOU ARE

Think about Simba in The Lion King. When Simba looked into the water, he didn't just see his reflection—he saw his father's strength and heard his father's voice calling him back to his purpose:

“ Remember who you are. ”

That moment wasn't just about his face in the water—it was about remembering the truth of his identity: he was a king!

In the same way, your reflection is more than what you see in the mirror. It's a reminder of who God created you to be—His child, strong, loved, and with an unique purpose. This activity will help you create a “frame” of truth around your reflection, filled with positive words that remind you of your God-given identity.

HOMEWORK

Objective: Surround your reflection frame with positive confessions from your sticker page that reflect your true identity. You can also use magazines or drawings to add your personal touch!

Instructions

1. Design your customised frame for your mirror.
2. Outside the frame, write confessions from Activity 2. You can also include new confessions that describe who God says you are.
3. Use confessions like:
 - Fearfully Made....
 - I am His Masterpiece...
4. Get creative—add drawings, symbols, or anything that makes the frame feel special to you!
