

This vision shows the vast abundance of provision that God has provided for us. Everything we will ever need in our lifetime has already been provided for. The inheritance that Jesus recovered for us cannot be received naturally. It must be received by faith, through the Spirit of God.

However, as it is written in 1 Corinthians 2: 9-14

“What no (natural) eye has seen,
what no (natural) ear has heard,
and what no human mind has conceived”—

the things God has prepared (prearranged) for those who love him—these are the things God has revealed to us by His Spirit.

The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. For who knows a person's thoughts except for their own spirit within them? In the same way, no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. What we have received is not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us.

This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual realities with Spirit-taught words. The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit.
