

REWRITING THE NEGATIVE

Affirmations are based on biblical confession! Proverbs 18:21 says, “The tongue has the power of life and death.”

When you speak God’s truth, like “I am fearfully and wonderfully made” (Psalm 139:14), you’re agreeing with Him and planting seeds of confidence and joy in your heart.

REWRITING THE NEGATIVE

The words you speak about yourself shape the way you think and live. Affirmations are a form of biblical confession, and when you declare truths that align with God’s Word, you are renewing your mind and agreeing with His promises.

Romans 12:2 (MSG) reminds us:

“Don’t become so well-adjusted to your culture that you fit into it without even thinking. Instead, fix your attention on God. You’ll be changed from the inside out.”

When you speak life-giving affirmations based on God’s truth, you shift your focus away from cultural pressures and worldly thinking and align yourself with how God sees you. His Word transforms your mind, shapes your identity, and brings out His best in you.

By consistently declaring truth—“I am chosen,” “I am strong,” “I am loved by God”—you’re allowing God to renew your mind and develop a well-formed maturity in you. This is more than just positive thinking; it’s choosing to believe what God says about you instead of what the world says.
