

THE ULTIMATE REFLECTION

HOW GOD SEE YOU

Have you ever looked in a mirror and focused only on what you don't like? Maybe you've thought, "I wish I looked different," or "I don't like what I see." But what if the mirror could show more than just your face? What if it could reveal your true identity—the way God sees you?

This happened to Simba in The Lion King, but it also happens to us every day.

In the video, people described themselves based on their insecurities, but when others described them, their reflections were so much brighter—full of beauty, kindness, and warmth.

Now imagine if God was the one describing you. Would He focus on the things you don't like? No way! He would see the masterpiece He created—strong, loved, chosen, and full of purpose.

God doesn't focus on your flaws—He sees your strengths and potential. In the Bible, Gideon thought he was weak, but God called him a mighty warrior (Judges 6:12). Like Simba in The Lion King, God reminds us of who we really are: chosen, loved, and full of purpose.
