

Another question to ask is how it was possible for Adam to move about so freely during the naming process. He must have had some mechanism for movement. We see a glimpse of this with Peter walking on the water in Matthew 14:29.

If all the fish were named by Adam and he wasn't a diver, he must have had the authority to operate inside water, to be able to name each fish. He was operating in the garden of "no limits," and God said, "I want to bring you into that same kind of garden when you cannot be restricted" (Isaiah 51:3).

Sadly, Adam fell off that grace when he partook of the forbidden fruit.

God had warned Adam, "You must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it you will certainly die." (Genesis 2:17). When Adam disobeyed, a part of him died.

But what was it that died in Adam?

It was his spirit, the spirit that linked him to God —the engine room for supernatural feats and accomplishments.

When Jesus came and died for us on the cross, He won back what was lost in Adam. We can now operate on the same extraordinary platform that Adam once did. Being born again brings every Christian back up to an extraordinary status.

John 3:6 says, "Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit." So a man who is born again is a spirit being, not a human being. He was a human being when he had a dead spirit, but now that he is born again his spirit is regenerated, and he has become a spirit being. That's the mystery of re-creation.

Take a look at verse 8: "The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

That's why the Bible says you determine the happenings, the wind blows where it pleases. This is the picture of dominion, it goes where it wants.

Whatever you don't want must go and whatever you desire must be delivered.

YOU HEAR ITS SOUND...

NOW, A SOUNDLESS
CHRISTIAN IS A SIGNLESS CHRISTIAN.

Why? You're a king, and a king makes decrees and his orders are carried out. You must be heard for the supernatural to be released. Words are the switch that sets the supernatural in motion. Your mouth is a powerful weapon of authority ordained by God to keep you in perfect dominion. Jesus was saying everyone who is born of the Spirit is like the wind. You must make distinct sounds with your mouth concerning what you desire before you can see a sign in that direction.

Ecclesiastes 8:4 (NKJV) says, "Where the word of a king is, there is power; And who may say to him, 'What are you doing?'"

ANGELS ARE LISTENING TO YOUR COMMAND AS KING.
